

Dear Admission Committee,

I have worked very closely with Ayantika Das during her 4 years at Eaton Corporation, while she has served as a Product Design Engineer within our aerospace vertical. I have mentored Ayantika during her Six Sigma Certification. She achieved this certification while solving a critical problem for a New Technology Projects. Ayantika has excelled in this role and maintained one of the highest levels of productivity for an engineer. Ayantika produces a high volume of work while maintaining high standards for quality and accuracy.

Ayantika proved herself as an industrious and meticulous professional. We have discussed a variety of proof testing plans, designing methods, and material composition, where she came up with her exceptional knowledge and insightful opinions. She always carried the "can do" attitude while taking on all tasks with a positive energy. She is a seasoned professional with a sound knowledge in mechanical design and structural failures. She has demonstrated her technical skills on a research project where her judgment about key decisions are accurate and persuasive.

During one of our important projects, Ayantika demonstrated the ability to work independently with efficiency and enthusiasm. She has effectively lead the project to meet the committed milestones within the defined budget. Her upbeat personality and engaging personal style enable her to interact effectively with clients and staff. Ayantika is very well organized and keeps track of the details necessary to coordinate events of this kind and run an efficient office.

Ayantika's positive demeanor and enthusiasm in office encourages the working spirit and makes her a very low maintenance employee. Her strong human relations skills enabled her to interface very effectively with many different stakeholders including employers, counter parts, and customers. Ayantika has a strong verbal and written communications skills allowing her to relay information in a clear and coherent manner. Ayantika is a naturally caring person with a strong helping orientation who consistently demonstrated a solid service orientation towards our clients.

I volunteered to write this recommendation for Ayantika because, I am very grateful for her contributions to our office, and very confident that she has the intelligence, work ethic and communications skills to be an asset to any university she joins. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about this outstanding young woman.

Sincerely,

Girish Zope
