

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING FOR STUDENT INTERNSHIP BETWEEN
INDIAN INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY KHARAGPUR (IITKGP), AND
CHANG GUNG UNIVERSITY (CGU), TAIWAN

Preamble

Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur (IIT KGP) is a reputed institution of higher learning situated at Kharagpur, India

Chang Gung University (CGU) is a private research-type academic school in Taoyuan, Taiwan

Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, India and Chang Gung University, Taoyuan, Taiwan have agreed for institutional student internship in education and research. The primary objective is to promote interaction and collaboration between faculty and students of the two institutions through visits and internship programs, carried out on a reciprocal basis. The relationship also aims at enhancing the technological, social and cultural relations of both countries/states/regions. This document presents a general framework for such a relationship. It also includes some specifically identified areas of cooperation, which may be updated from time to time.

Scope of Cooperation

The following area of cooperation has been identified under this MoU.

- (i) Student Research Internships: The two parties agree to allow student short-term visiting for research purposes and Summer/Winter internships in research. The visit of the student(s) must be approved by the professor(s) under whom the student will pursue the internship.

The areas of cooperation may be revised by mutual consent. However, specific programmes may require separate agreements detailed out and documented as annexures to this MoU

Intellectual Property

Each institution will adhere to the intellectual laws of its nation.

Any Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) brought by one of the Parties for the implementation of activities under this MoU shall remain the property of that Party.

The Parties anticipate that this MoU will help developing a number of individual research projects and/or exchange programs involving sharing of personnel, research paper authorship and/or sponsorship. Prior to each project and/or program, the Parties will formally agree the collaboration of these implementation of activities as set forth in Scope of Cooperation and the rights and obligations, including but not limited to the ownership of IPR and the indemnification of IPR, between the Parties in writing. Individual project and/or program will be reviewed and approved by designated officers of the Parties.

Furthermore, if one institution receives any information from the partner under a clearly defined non-disclosure agreement, necessary and reasonable care will be taken to protect the intellectual property received.

Financing

The project initiator (e.g. supervisor, professor and so on) of host institute will make arrangements for local living including accommodation, food, insurance etc. at reasonable costs to visiting students and faculty. All travel costs shall be borne by the visitors or their home institution. Students have the right to ask for financial supports as the project announcement. However, various external funding sources may be explored either independently or jointly.

Legal Status

This document is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial cooperation and is not legally binding on both the parties. Any disputes shall be resolved through mutual discussion.

Validity

This MoU is valid for a period of one year and becomes effective from the date it is signed by the partners. The partnership period may be extended by mutual consent. In case one partner wishes to terminate the MoU, intimation will have to be sent at least six months in advance. However, specific commitments made prior to such intimation shall be honored by both the partners.

Chia-Ming Yang

Prof. Chia-Ming Yang.
Chairman of Institute of Electro-Optical Engineering
Chang Gung University
Taoyuan, Taiwan

Date: 6/12/2019

Surjya Kanta Pal

Prof. Surjya Kanta Pal
Associate Dean of International Relations,
Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur
Kharagpur, India

Date : _____

