

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING FOR INSTITUTIONAL COLLABORATION BETWEEN
INDIAN INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY KHARAGPUR (IITKGP), AND
DATTA MEGHE INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES (DMIMS)
(Deemed University)

Preamble

Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur (IITKGP) is a reputed institution of higher learning situated at Kharagpur, India, 721302

DATTA MEGHE INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES (DMIMS) Deemed to be University in Central India, re-accredited by NACC as Grade A+ and, thereby maintaining high academic standards and is included under "Category – I Deemed to be University" (UGC Regulations, 2018 dated 12th February 2018 in the Gazette of India)

R & D at DMIMS is primarily engaged in inter-disciplinary research. Thematic research clusters have galvanised, innovative and creative culture amongst the researchers having cross-cutting domains. High impact initiatives have led to securing large grants and membership in consortiums like Bioengineering Technology Incubation Centre (BeTiC) in collaboration with IIT Mumbai, VNIT and CoE, Pune; iHealTH in collaboration with NIDHI TBI - Gandhinagar, AIIMS Jodhpur and New Gen Innovation Entrepreneurship Development Centre. DMIMS-DU, is also a fully operational medical college and hospital specializing in public health and patient well-being. According to NIRF, DMIMS-DU is amongst the top 100 ranked universities in India in the overall category.

IITKGP and DMIMS (DU) have agreed for institutional collaboration in education and research. The primary objective is to promote interaction and collaboration between faculty, staff and students of the two institutions through visits and exchange programmes, carry out joint academic and research programmes, joint supervision of doctoral and masters students, on a reciprocal basis. The relationship also aims at enhancing the technological, social and cultural relations of both countries/states/regions. This document presents a general framework for such a relationship. It also includes some specifically identified areas of cooperation, which may be updated from time to time.

Coordination

Dr. Quazi Syed shall be the Coordinator from DMIMS(DU) and Professor Santanu Dhara shall be the Coordinator from IITKGP. The participants and coordinators may change from time to time as decided by appropriate authority of the respective institutions.

Scope of Cooperation

The following areas of cooperation have been identified under this MoU.

- (i) Student exchange programme: The two parties agree to participate in student exchange programme at the respective institutions. Visits under such programmes may be for a short duration, such as summer/winter terms or short courses, or for a longer duration not exceeding two semesters. For visits exceeding two semesters separate approvals will be needed. A detailed proposal document on this (including credit transfer arrangements) has to be approved by the highest academic bodies of the two institutions before implementation.

- (ii) Joint research projects: The two parties will explore opportunities of undertaking joint research projects and may seek research funding from external funding agencies. Each such research proposal shall require approval of the respective institutions.
- (iii) Joint academic activities and events: IITKGP and DMIMS (DU) may formulate joint academic activities such as short course, seminars, workshops or conferences based on mutual interests and available expertise in both the institutions. They may also share and carry out joint research in technology for distance and computer-based learning.

The areas of cooperation may be revised by mutual consent. However, specific programmes may require separate agreements detailed out and documented as annexures to this MoU.

Non-discrimination

IITKGP and DMIMS-DU agree not to discriminate against any person because of age, sex, national origin, race, ancestry, color, religious creed disability or handicap, and sexual orientation. Neither institution shall impose criteria for the exchange of faculty, staff and students that would violate the principles of non-discrimination.

Code of Conduct

Visiting student and faculty will abide by the codes of conduct of the host Institution.

Intellectual Property

Each institution will adhere to the intellectual laws of its nation. Intellectual property developed during the visit of an exchange student/researcher/faculty/staff will be governed by the rules of the host institute unless otherwise specified.

Any Background Intellectual Property (BGIP) shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the Party to whom it belonged prior to the commencement of this MoU. If one Party receives any BGIP from the partner under a clearly defined non-disclosure agreement, necessary and reasonable care will be taken to protect the intellectual property received.

The two institutions shall jointly own results and Intellectual Property generated thereof for clearly defined collaborative projects and exchange programmes. This joint ownership of Jointly Developed Intellectual Property (JDIP) also entitles each party to explore commercialization. However, transfer or sale of JDIP and associated sharing of revenue shall be governed by a separate agreement.

Financing

Both institutes will consider tuition fee waivers to the visiting students. The host institute will make arrangements for local living including accommodation, food, insurance etc. at reasonable costs to visiting students and faculty. All travel costs shall be borne by the visitors or their home institution. Additional support, if any, will be governed by separate agreements that may be drawn up for specific activities.

Legal Status

This document is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial cooperation and is not legally binding on both the parties. Any disputes shall be resolved through mutual discussion.

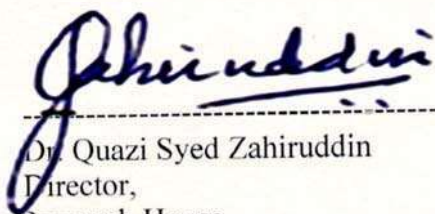

Validity and Termination

This MoU is valid for an initial period of five years and becomes effective from the date it is signed by the partners. The partnership period may be extended by mutual consent.

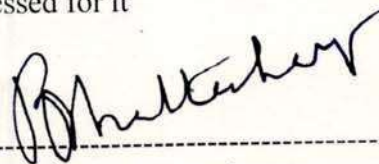

This agreement may be terminated:

- on either party giving the other party 6 months' prior written notice;
- on written notice by one of the Parties if the other Party has committed a breach of this MoU.

However, specific commitments made prior to such intimation shall be honoured by both the partners including ensuring that any student at that time participating in the Programme is able to complete the term of the assignment and be assessed for it
