Note

Sub: Request for AC Service/repair at PDF Hostel, 7th Floor (Room nos. 801 to 812).

Enclosed please find herewith few applications received from the International students residing in PDF Building which are self-explanatory.

12 Nos. of room have been allocated in the name of IR office to further reallocate to the international student as from priority and other few factor bases.

All the rooms are furnished by Window AC. In this hot summer some AC's are not working properly. All the AC's require comprehensive maintenance like gas filling etc.

In view of above, the file is placed for approval and subsequently be forwarded to Refrigeration and AC Unit for their advice and help.

Subject : Regarding the AC condition in the room 811, Pavel Karmanov
To : ir-office@adm.iitkgp.ac.in

Dear Mr. Arup Roy,

My name is Pavel Karmanov. I am a senior research scholar from the Department of Geology and Geophysics, IIT Kharagpur. My Roll Number is 20GG91A01. I reside in room 811 of the PDF block, VSRC. I just wanted to let you know that my room's Air Conditioner (AC) does not work properly. The AC creates a loud sound while working and does not provide enough cold even if I set the temperature to a minimum. The summer season will come soon, so the AC needs to work properly. Could you please solve the abovementioned problems with AC as soon as possible? Also, please inform me about the date and time when the workers will come to my room to fix the item so that I can meet them.

Yours sincerely,
Pavel Karmanov

Respected Sir,

Hope this email finds you well. I am Babu Ram Sharma an International Scholar from Nepal in the CORAL department and staying in PDF hostel room no 809. The AC in the room is not working properly and needs servicing. I hope you understand the situation and how difficult it is to stay on the top floor without AC.

I am requesting you to take the necessary steps regarding the matter.

Thank you.
