Sub: Releasing Call for Warwick Manufacturing Group (WMG) for Summer 2025

The Warwick Manufacturing Group (WMG) The Warwick Manufacturing Group (WMG) annually invites the Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur to select a small number of IITKGP students for research internships for approximately 8 weeks (undergrads) and 11 weeks (postgrads) at the University of Warwick. Participants will carry out an individual research project that is related to the degree course for which they are registered and will be co-supervised by a supervisor each at WMG and IIT Kharagpur. The purpose is to develop the research skills of the IITKGP students in an industry-focused environment, encourage collaboration between WMG and IIT Kharagpur encourage the development of nascent research ideas and to build the research profiles of the two Institutes. Each selected student, after spending the summer at WMG, will return to Kharagpur and continue the research with the home supervisor.

Last year (2023 nominations for student visits in summer 2024) 11 students were selected for this enriching experience (Flag 1).

This year, the call for project proposals is being scheduled to be released at WMG on 1st Nov with a deadline of December 13, 2024. The selected projects for 2024 are expected to be received from WMG on 10.01.2025 (Flag 2) following which a call for students application will have to be released.

Requesting your kind approval for sending out the call for project proposals.
