Sub: Requesting Approval for Dyuti

The Office of International Relations, IIT Kharagpur would like to organize a one-credit certification programme for international short-term and degree students studying in recognized Indian universities and institutes.

Through this programme, OIR aims to increase the reach of the international outreach of the Institute as encouraged by various initiatives of Govt. of India and promote IIT Kharagpur as the preferred destination for foreign students.

Dyuti will focus on Indian Studies which would include indigenous rural technology development, affordable healthcare technology, science and heritage, art and culture offering the students diverse knowledge about diversity of Indian education system and a holistic understanding of India.

Faculty experts from IIT Kharagpur have already consented to teach in this programme.

OIR proposes to host about 25 students for this credit course from October 25 - 30, 2019.

Submitted for kind consideration and approval please.

NOTE: DYUTI 2019

The Office of International Relations is organizing a 6-day short-term, in-residence, certification programme DYUTI for international students currently studying in recognized universities and institutions in India.

DYUTI is an immersive learning programme in the areas of science and heritage, technology and culture of India exclusively. It is meant for international students to visit IIT Kharagpur and taste the rich Indian culture and heritage during the festival of Diwali. The programme is also aimed at increasing the international student and brand outreach of IIT Kharagpur.

DYUTI 2019 is proposed to be held during Oct 25-30, 2019. It will include

- lectures and presentations by select faculty members of IIT Kharagpur in the areas of rural technology development, affordable healthcare, Indian science and heritage
- workshops by various student societies and groups including hands-on training
- first hand experience of the unique Illumination-Rangoli event of IIT Kharagpur

The detailed programme schedule of DYUTI 2019 and participating students are enclosed herewith (Annexures 1 and 2).

OIR would like to offer a scholarship to the students to cover the expenses of their on-campus accommodation, food, local transport and incidentals. The estimated cost for this is INR One Lakh (Rs. 100,000/-) which is requested to be borne from Institute Funds.

The above is placed for your kind consideration and approval.
